

Children of John J. Durbin and Patience Logsdon

I. Rebecca, daughter of John J. Durbin and Patience Logsdon, was married to Jack Thomas, parentage unknown, in Hardin County, January 18, 1820.

We do not have much information on Jack and Rebecca Thomas; they apparently never moved to Edmonson County, but stayed in Hardin County. Jack seems to have died before the census of 1850. We are not positive the census records listed below are part of his family, but I believe it is.

On the census of Hardin County, 1850, southern section:

John Thomas	26
Margaret	25
Cynthia A.	4
Eliza D.	3
William H.	1
Elias Thomas	27
Elizabeth	26
Margaret J.	5
John R.	4
Rebecca A.	1
Martha Hagen	20
Rebecca Thomas	57
Richard	22
Ann J.	23
Hardin	16
Joseph Robert	11
Margaret Thomas	36
Warren	16
Jackson	12
Lydia	10
James	8
Henry	6
Infant unnamed	4 days
Enos Thomas	42

These four households are in sequence and, I believe, must be of the same family and the family of Jack Thomas and Rebecca Durbin. John J. and Patience were married in 1794, and Rebecca would have been born the same year.
